

SHOP YOURSELF PROUD

Adults' T-shirts

£10, with at least £5 to Sport Relief

Kids' T-shirts

£6/£7, with at least £3/£3.50 to going to Sport Relief

Wristbands

£1, with at least 50p to Sport Relief

Mugs

£3, with at least £1.50 to Sport Relief

Light Up Yo-Yo

£3, with at least £1.50 to Sport Relief

Deeley Boppers

£2.50, with at least £1.25 to Sport Relief

Soft Balls

£1, with at least 50p to Sport Relief

Trolley Tokens

£1, with at least 50p to Sport Relief

Pin Badges

£1, with at least 50p to Sport Relief

Fashion Bands

£2, with at least £1 to Sport Relief

Available at sportrelief.com/shop from 7 January, Sainsbury's stores from 15 February and selected items in Oxfam shops from 26 January.

Ryman and Robert Dyas pens

Four to collect – £1 each, with at least 70p to Sport Relief

Sport Relief Fitbit

Donations on special Sport Relief Fitbit packs

The Great Sport Relief Bake Off Book

£2.50 with at least £2 to Sport Relief

Orla Kiely apron and tea towel

Apron £12.99, with at least £5.25 going to Sport Relief. Tea towel £4.99, with at least £2.50 going to Sport Relief.

Available from HomeSense & TK Maxx stores.

BT will once again be sponsoring the BT Sport Relief Challenge

British Airways will raise cash by collecting spare change on all flights

Look out for Premier League clubs and players taking part!

RBS are supporting Sport Relief with customer and employee fundraising

Train, get support and enjoy community fundraising events and challenges at Better

The more you move, the more Sure will donate. So get moving!

Look out for Sport England's amazing 'This Girl Can' campaign this Sport Relief

