International grant making

£15

£15 could pay for three young carers in the UK to go to an after-school activity club for a break from their huge responsibility at home.

£5

£5 could buy textbooks for a child living in a Bangladeshi slum so they can go to school.

£20

£20 could pay for a support session for two young people in the UK with a disability to help improve their communication skills.

£10

£10 could provide a child living on the streets of Nepal with access basic health care services for a whole year.

If you pay UK tax* and tick the Gift Aid box the Government will give us 25% on top of your donation, which we use to help cover our running costs. It won't cost you a penny. Please give your full name and home address and tick below or we can't claim Gift Aid.

Total raised

For office use only

Parents/guardians, remember to pay in the cash your kids have raised – here's how:

BY POST – return this sponsorship form with a cheque made payable to Sport Relief 2016 (Fundraise) to Sport Relief, EY, PO Box 51543, London, SE1 2UG.

This isn't our office address so unfortunately we won't receive letters sent there.

IN PERSON – after Sport Relief in March you can pay your money in at any high street bank using a Sport Relief giro slip (just ask for one at the counter), at the Post Office (Freepay Account 6777), or at most building societies. Please send your paying-in receipt with this form to the address above so we can still claim Gift Aid.

ONLINE – In the New Year you can also pay your money in using a credit or debit card at sportrelief.com/payin. Remember to enter your web payment reference below and send this form to the address above as well so that we can still claim Gift Aid.

People like you are like gold dust to us so, if you enjoyed being a part of Sport Relief, we'd love you to be a part of our future campaigns too. It'd mean we'd send you a couple of things, per year, by post such as a Fundraising Kit. We also never share anyone's details with other organisations. If you'd rather not though, you can tick this box
