9-13 MARCH

Thank you for planning a bucket collection for Sport Relief. To make sure your fundraising is safe and legal, please follow the guidelines below.

First of all, it's really important that you get the right permission before you start collecting.

Street collections

If you're holding a collection on the street, you'll need to obtain a licence, either from your local authority, or, if you're in Greater London, the Metropolitan Police.

Collections on private property

If your collection is open to the public but being held on private property (e.g. within a shopping centre or rail station) you must obtain permission from the landowner or manager.

House to house collections

We do not permit house to house collections as we're not authorised to fundraise in this way.

Static collections

You don't need a licence to place a static collection box/bucket in a shop or business, just permission from the business owner.

HANDLING DONATIONS

The Code of Fundraising Practice and Guidance offers best practice and legal guidance on the handling, receiving and counting of money donated to Comic Relief. To find out more, please go to fundraisingregulator.org.uk/code

For collections in Scotland, see the Scottish Charity Law in Relation to Fundraising and Public Charitable Collections guidance at fundraisingregulator.org.uk/code/all-fundraising/processing-donations
